Javier Pinto

Javier Pinto has been doing theatre since his 10th grade year. He immediately fell in love with performing in front of an audience. He goes to Bartram Trail High School. He was an ensemble character in both “You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown” and “Chicago”. He also played Fredrick/Philip in “Noises Off”, and John Brooke in “Little Woman”. He can’t wait to direct “A Christmas Carol” as this is his first production as a director.

Maya Soriano

Maya is thrilled to be performing again with St. Johns Stage. Past performances include Katie Van Bloom in The Return of the Headless Horseman, Mary Debenham in Murder on the Orient Express, Little House on The Prairie (understudy for Mary), Tuck Everlasting, Miracle on 34th Street as Elf, Sound of Music Jr. as Sister Berthe, Willy Wonka Jr., and South Pacific as Ngana. Maya is a ninth grade homeschooler who enjoys singing and dancing. She would like to thank the cast, crew, and her friends and family for all their love and support.

Gregory Schuknect

Gregory has been doing theatre since Elementary School, where he quickly realized how much he enjoyed performing. He goes to Bartram Trail High School, most recently playing Garry/Roger in “Noises Off”, as well as Billy Flynn in “Chicago”. Here at SJS he was in both “Little Women” and “Headless Horseman”, and has been having a wonderful time here since he started in Summer. He is ecstatic to perform as a child in Christmas Carol!

Kelsey Ryan

This is Kelsey's first SJS production! Previously, she performed with an acting school in Colorado, and last Spring she played Young Anna in the Fruit Cove Middle School production of “Frozen Jr”.

“This cast is awesome, and I've really enjoyed acting with you guys. Merry Christmas.”

Matthew Duck

Matthew Duck has been doing theatre since Middle School, where he quickly realized how much he enjoyed being on stage. He is a Junior at Bartram Trail High School, most recently playing Garry/Roger in “Noises Off”, as well as Amos in “Chicago”. Here at SJS he performed in both “Little Women” as Professor Bhaer and “Headless Horseman Rides Again” as the Ghost of Will Sims. “I have been having a great time since starting this past Summer”. He is super excited to perform as a speechless, ghostly entity in Christmas Carol!

Jack Ahlers

Jack is new to St. Johns Stage this year and is very excited to be part of the cast. Jack has had previous roles as a Lost Boy in “Peter Pan” and has participated in a wide variety of music and drama classes in middle and high school. Jack wants to thank his mom and dad for their support and the cast and crew for all the laughter and fun during this production.

Kate Morcom

Kate Morcom is delighted to make her debut with St. Johns Stage Theatre Productions and to be performing in her first big production. Kate is a 5th grade student at Timberlin Creek Elementary School. Kate currently attends the Acting Technique class at St. Johns Stage and is participating in her third year with Drama Kids after-school program with whom she has previously performed the roles of Goldilocks in Storyland Idol and Sweet Pirate in The Bold Buccaneers. She is so very proud to be a part of “A Christmas Carol (Goes Wrong)” and wants to thank St. Johns Stage Theatre Productions for this exciting opportunity.

Alan Esteves

Alan Esteves is a young actor of 11 years old. He is in 6th grade, his favorite class is science. Alan has been with St Johns Stage since summer 2021. His first performance was at Access Broadway in Orlando, when he won several high scoring awards. Alan’s previous roles include Harley in “The Headless Horseman Rides Again, and the Lion in “The Wizard of Oz”. He attends SJS more than 4 days a week practicing to improve his skill in acting, singing and dancing. Alan definitely loves light, camera and accion!

Mridula Ram

This is Mridula (Mittu’s) first performance on stage and with St. Johns Stage!

I am very grateful to my parents for opening my eyes to this amazing opportunity. I also wish to thank the wonderful members of SJS for providing me with such an unforgettable experience.

The rehearsals taught me so much and the room was always filled with laughter and fun. It was a blast!!

Briana Logvinov
